9:00AM to 10:30AM

WHERE  Graduate Resource Center
Room 3100 Gateway Study Center
(Across the plaza from Langson Library)

WHAT

UC President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program provides a year-long research and professional development experience at a UC campus. Fellows are hosted by a department/program and mentored by one or more faculty. The award provides salary, competitive health benefits, and up to $5,000 for research-related and program travel expenses.

Now in its third decade, the UC President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program is one of the most sought after year-long fellowships in the United States.

WHY

Gain insight from UCI Faculty about the purpose and rewards of the President’s Postdoctoral Fellowship Program. Have your questions answered about the application process by Program participants.
Deadline for this year’s competition is November 1st.

WHO

Applicants must receive a Ph.D. from an accredited university before the start of their fellowship. Successful applicants must present documents demonstrating that they are legally authorized to work in the United States without restrictions or limitations. Individuals granted deferred action status under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program are encouraged to apply.
