Speaker Biography

Susan Coutin, Associate Dean, Graduate Division

Susan Bibler Coutin is Associate Dean for Academic Affairs of the Graduate Division at the University of California, Irvine, where she is also Professor of Criminology, Law and Society and Anthropology. She was Co-PI on the “Diverse Educational Community and Doctoral Experience” FIPSE Comprehensive grant that the UCI Graduate Division received in 2010 and has been integrally involved in the Graduate Division’s work to support graduate diversity and inclusive excellence. Her own research examines immigration from Central America to the United States, with a focus on legal and political advocacy. She is the author of 4 books and over 80 scholarly articles, chapters, and other publications. Her most recent book, Exiled Home: Salvadoran Transnational Youth in the Aftermath of Violence, will be published by Duke University Press in 2016.