

Furthering personal and professional goals through education and inspiration.

Academic & Professional Women of UC Irvine presents:

The Women of UCI

Lunchtime Seminar Series

Featuring Deborah Lowe Vandell, Ph.D.

Founding Dean, UC Irvine School of Education

UCI faculty and staff (men are welcome, too) are invited to join us for this popular speaker series focused on the challenges and triumphs faced by some of UC Irvine's most successful women as they inspire us in our own life's path.

Deborah Vandell tops off the 2013-14 series with a discussion of her career as a kindergarten teacher, university professor, and the founding dean of the UC Irvine School of Education. Dean Vandell also will share some personal insights for aspiring employees both on the academic and staff side of the campus.

Don't miss this unique opportunity!

Wednesday, June 18, 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

MPAA (attached to Social Sciences Parking Structure), Room 100

Advance Tickets Only: A&PW Members $6 (Non-members $8)

Space is limited; email dsagey@uci.edu to reserve your seat and receive payment instructions.

Lunch is provided and sponsored in part by Lett-uce Cater to You

www.apw.uci.edu

apw.uci.edu

UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA • IRVINE