

CLS DECADE Climate of Inclusion Discussion With Dean Erwin Chemerinsky

DATE: APRIL 21ST
TIME: 1:30PM – 2:30PM
LOCATION: SE-I ROOM 112

Addressing issues of Diversity within the bounds of Prop 209

Under the DECADE Program, the Department of Criminology, Law and Society is actively working to understand and address issues of diversity and climate. Departments are often challenged when addressing issues of diversity because of the guidelines set by Proposition 209. In this talk, Dean Erwin Chemerinsky of the UCI Law School will speak to us on how to address climate and diversity issues within the constraints of California's Proposition 209.

Light snacks will be provided*

Diverse Educational Community and Doctoral Experience
Social Ecology Student Council