Campus Conversations Series

Presents

Promoting Diversity throughout the Academic Career

A Presentation and Conversation with

Mary Gilly

Chair of the Irvine Division of the UC Academic Senate

Thursday, May 16, 2013

Noon-1:00 p.m.

Humanities Gateway, Room 1010

Mary C. Gilly is Professor of Marketing at the Paul Merage School of Business, University of California, Irvine. Professor Gilly has served on a number of key Academic Senate Committees, including Graduate Council (Chair), Council on Academic Personnel (Chair) and is currently Chair of the Irvine Division of the Academic Senate.

Whether you are a graduate student interested in an academic career, a junior faculty member facing tenure or a mid-career faculty member looking to advance, you are welcome to join us for this conversation with Professor Gilly. She will lead a discussion on promoting diversity at the UCI, drawing on her experience mentoring underrepresented students, and her activities in the Academic Senate related to graduate student and academic personnel review.

The event is part of the Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity's Campus Conversations Series which aims to provide the campus community with opportunities to engage in dialogues about contemporary topics related to equal opportunity and diversity.

This event is free and open to the campus community. If you have questions or need further information, please call (949) 824-5594 or email rfaraj@uci.edu. To learn more about OEOD, go to: www.oiod.uci.edu.
