

Surviving Suicide Loss

A healing conference for our UCI community

If you have lost someone to suicide, you are not alone...
Every 14.2 minutes someone is left to make sense of the loss. We invite all undergrad and graduate students, faculty, staff and friends of our UCI community who have been impacted by suicide to join us for a day of healing and remembrance.

Saturday April 28th

11:30am - 4pm

Student Center - Balboa Island A & B

COUNSELING CENTER
UNIVERSITY of CALIFORNIA - IRVINE

Please join us for a healing conference where you will have an opportunity to:

- ~ Listen to survivors of suicide loss tell their stories and share practical advice*
- ~ Learn from professionals as they explain what we currently know about suicide and grief*
- ~ Engage in sharing sessions and healing activities*
- ~ Connect with local AFSP volunteers and Counseling Center staff*

This event is sponsored by the UCI Counseling Center in partnership with the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Space is limited, register online now at www.afsp.org/UCIrvine
Conference includes a catered lunch and is free of cost to all attendees!

Saturday April 28th

11:30am—4pm

Student Center, Balboa Island A & B

For more information contact
Tina Romero at the Counseling Center
949.824.6457 romerot@uci.edu